NOMINATION OF CAROL DINKINS

Mr. CORNYN. Mr. President, I rise today in support of the nomination of Carol Dinkins of Houston, TX, to be the chair of the Privacy and Civil Liberties Oversight Board.

Congress recently created this important position based on the recommendation of the 9/11 Commission. The Privacy and Civil Liberties Oversight Board is designed to monitor and uphold our nation's commitment to defend civil liberties. Part of the board's responsibilities will be to provide honest, responsible, and fair review of the development and implementation of laws, regulations, and executive branch policies—specifically with respect to our Federal Government's commitment to protect America from the ongoing threat of terrorism.

The board will play an important role in ensuring that privacy and civil liberty concerns are appropriately considered. Such oversight is important because, as a Nation, we proudly revere our civil liberties. We must remain committed to vigorously defend them, in order to ensure that we remain a beacon of freedom to the rest of the world.

Congress strives to strike a careful and wise balance between national security and civil liberties. While this is not always easy, I believe we do so with the best interests of our Nation in mind—and do so in an honest and good faith manner.

Ms. Dinkins is the right person for this important position, as she has proven throughout her distinguished career to share these values. Her vast public service and private-sector experience will allow Carol Dinkins to offer unique perspectives to the privacy board. As Deputy Attorney General under President Reagan—the second-highest ranking position in the Department of Justice—Ms. Dinkins was responsible for the day-to-day management of the Justice Department's more than 60,000 employees. Moreover, she played a significant role in the development of the Reagan administration's criminal justice and anti-terrorism policies.

Ms. Dinkins has also been a long-time partner in the distinguished Texas law firm of Vinson & Elkins. She has devoted a substantial amount of her time to a variety of public service initiatives, including service on the American Bar Association, and has also donated significant time to activities designed to promote conservation and protect the environment.

I am proud to support Carol Dinkins for this position and am confident that she will serve the Nation with honor and distinction.

LEGISLATIVE SESSION

The PRESIDING OFFICER. The Senate will now return to legislative session.

Mr. WARNER. Will the Senator yield for a moment?

Mr. FRIST. Yes.

Mr. WARNER. I thank the majority leader for working with the minority leader to get these three nominations confirmed. Two are under the category of the Department of Defense, and the third is Energy. Nevertheless, the Energy nominee works carefully with the Committee on Armed Services, which makes up 60 percent of the Department of Energy's budget. Together with my colleague, Senator LEVIN, we have worked very hard, and this is probably one of the shortest periods in which we have been able to completely go through the advice and consent process very carefully, meticulously, but in a very timely fashion. I will have further remarks about these nominations, but the Department is very much in need of these key personnel, particularly the Under Secretary of the Army, a former member of Congress.

I thank the leader for his cooperation in insisting that we get these nominations done in a timely manner, and I thank the staff. There is a lot of staff work that went into this effort.

ORDERS FOR MONDAY, FEBRUARY 27, 2006

Mr. FRIST. Mr. President, I ask unanimous consent that when the Senate completes its business today, it stand in adjournment under the provisions of H. Con. Res. 345 until 2 p.m. on Monday, February 27. I further ask that following the prayer and pledge, the morning hour be deemed expired, the Journal of proceedings be approved to date, the time for the two leaders be reserved, and that the Senate then conduct a period for the transaction of morning business until 3 p.m., with Senators permitted to speak for up to 10 minutes each. I further ask that following morning business, the Senate resume consideration of S. 2271, the PATRIOT Act amendments bill, as under the previous order.

The PRESIDING OFFICER. Without objection, it is so ordered.

PROGRAM

Mr. FRIST. Mr. President, today the Senate will adjourn for the Presidents Day recess. When we reconvene on Monday, February 27, we will resume consideration of the PATRIOT Act amendments bill, and under the agreement reached this week, we will have a vote on the motion to invoke cloture on the bill at 2:30 p.m. on Tuesday, February 28, and a vote on passage at 10 a.m. the following day, on Wednesday. The vote on Tuesday will be the first vote of the week.

I thank Senator SALAZAR for today's reading of George Washington's Farewell Address. This tradition has been long-standing. It began in 1892 and became an annual event in the Senate beginning in 1893. Ever since that point in time, we celebrate Washington's birthday with the reading of the 7,641-word address, and the address has been made available to each of our colleagues. I have had the opportunity to read that 7,641-word address. It means a lot to be able to share those words which have been so meaningful and such a tremendous tradition for this body and our heritage and, speaking very directly to the future as well, the tradition that we will continue to pass on and respect.

ORDER FOR ADJOURNMENT

Mr. FRIST. If there is no further business to come before the Senate, I ask unanimous consent that the Senate stand in adjournment following the remarks of my distinguished colleague from Virginia.

The PRESIDING OFFICER. Without objection, it is so ordered.

The Senator from Virginia.

DEPARTMENT OF DEFENSE NOMINATIONS

Mr. WARNER. Mr. President, I again thank the distinguished majority leader. He made reference to the George Washington Farewell Address. I remember 25 years ago, a quarter of a century ago, I gave the address and I was awakened on that day to 25 inches of snow. The only people who came to the Congress that day were the Presiding Officer, a clerk, and myself to deliver that address. I remember I walked from my then-residence some 2 miles in the snow. There was a farmer's march here, and they were all in a tent camp, and a tractor drove me up the hill the final 3 or 4 blocks. It was one of the few moments of any fame in my life. I was picked by The New York Times as the "Man of the Week" for forging through the storm to give that very important address. Since then, it has all been downhill for me.

I wish to address the Senate with regard to these nominations for the Department of Defense. I ask unanimous consent to have printed in the RECORD a brief biography of each of these distinguished Americans who have stepped forward to take on these responsibilities.

There being no objection, the material was ordered to be printed in the RECORD, as follows:
